THE WIZARD OF AKYRZ

You begin the Adventure in the Throne Room of the Palace. The old King grieves for his kidnapped daughter and the theft of the Crown Jewels. All the King seems to have left now is advice!

A pair of broken Spectacles would become useful later on, but be careful of the [illegible]. Perhaps you will find something to tie them with?

The Princess' bedroom is a mess. The Shopkeeper doesn't look too clean but [illegible]

There's nothing special about the Staircase, except that as in all Castles the stone walls are very cold. You'd think that they would cover them with something to keep out the cold.

I think that some kind of weapon will be needed sooner or later.

Long Palace corridors all look the same. But obviously they are not!

There are often locked trunks in palace corridors. Some of them even have secret compartments.

The portrait of the Princess looks a bit tattered, but the chain looks interesting.

I see I'm expected to do some digging at some stage!

You would expect to find some Birds around in the forest. There are lots of tall Trees, many with low branches, and... yes... I can hear [illegible] of something.

At least there are Treasures to be found, but what on earth have RAVENS got to do with it all?

It would be dangerous if the Spectacles fell when I really need them. There must be some way to fix them.

There must be danger ahead. I'm certainly getting a signal from the sword.

[illegible] would [illegible] Adventureland!

This place deep underground might be an old mine-work [illegible] worth a dig or two.

There's always at least one maze in every Adventure. But the seasoned Adventurer knows how to map his way out!

I [illegible] think there has been some kind of mining going on down here in the Tunnels.

The view from the [illegible] is really breathtaking, especially [illegible]. There doesn't seem to be any [illegible] way down though. [illegible] expected to Jump? am I?

This [illegible] feel. There's probably a Farm nearby [illegible]

There may be a LOCAL solution to this problem here by the gorge, otherwise I'm a bit [illegible] here.

Snow Chickens [illegible] Foxes [illegible]

Perhaps all my climbing [illegible] some [illegible]?

I wonder if the Chicken really belongs here?

[illegible] very dangerous [illegible] around a maze in the dark!

The Chickens [illegible] the Fox. [illegible] somehow.

[illegible] the Chickens [illegible] Chickens [illegible]

There [illegible] the Kind Hero [illegible]

[illegible] for my Fox [illegible] yet?

The Fox must have his [illegible] somewhere around here.

[illegible] the Fox seems to be trying to tell me something.

I wonder [illegible] the Ocean? [illegible]

[illegible] I must try to keep [illegible]

[illegible] the end of my [illegible] by now [illegible] in my mission.

[illegible] up [illegible] Evil Wizards

[illegible]

[illegible] should be [illegible]

[illegible] the Adventure Master. Or [illegible] Fox than [illegible]
